Brahms and Beyond - Sydney Symphony Orchestra Fellows 2025

Journey through a rich tapestry of sound and style in Brahms and Beyond, an invigorating afternoon of chamber music performed by the twelve highly talented Sydney Symphony Orchestra Fellows. This dynamic program explores fascinating ensemble configurations and works brimming with character, contrast, and expressive flair — from the evocative lyricism of Brahms to the modern fire of Turrin.

The program travels through an enticing range of moods and textures: Poulenc's Sextet offers Parisian wit and warmth in an effervescent dialogue between winds and piano. The program takes a more reflective turn with Schubert's "Der Atlas" and "Der Doppelgänger", haunting art songs transcribed for trombone and piano. Turrin's "Fandango" for trumpet, trombone, and piano brings bold rhythms and vibrant brass energy. The program's final offering — the opening movement of Brahms' Piano Quintet — concludes the afternoon with dramatic intensity and lyrical poignancy.

For almost 25 years, the Sydney Symphony Fellowship program has nurtured the next generation of professional orchestral musicians through a comprehensive, hands-on learning experience, providing them with a springboard to a career in music.

Through this dynamic repertoire, the Sydney Symphony Orchestra Fellows showcase their versatility, musical depth, and collaborative artistry — promising a concert that moves, surprises, and uplifts.
