

A message from the Mayor

With school holidays coming to an end I want to take the opportunity to thank Council staff for their tireless efforts running programs to keep little ones engaged and entertained.

The opportunities were endless for busy parents and kids who didn't want to stay at home. Our Coastal Environment Centre at North Narrabeen, Vacation Care centres all over the peninsula and swimming lessons at our aquatic centres were all immensely popular.

Across our services, we had more than a thousand kids come through the doors. Around 400 of those youngsters took part in our library programs, with activities including creative writing, weaving craft, a comedy show from Sean Murphy and a zine workshop. Keep an eye on Council's website for school holiday activities planned for late September and early October. Bookings are often essential.

The fun doesn't stop because the school holidays are over. The Forestville Business Group, with the support of Council, has organised the inaugural Winter Festival at 'The Centre' in Forestville next Saturday, 27 July from 9am. This will be a great opportunity to enjoy some family-friendly entertainment with free music, a petting zoo, face painting and a special creator space hosted by the Forestville Library.

For those interested in art, be sure to catch three new exciting exhibitions opening next Friday, 26 July at the Manly Art Gallery and Museum. Two exhibitions feature the works of Sydney photographic artists Stu Spence and Louise Whelan which are sure to captivate all those who enjoy cutting edge photography. The third exhibition features the mesmerising works of one of Australia's most respected abstract painters Charlie Sheard.

This weekend will be one to enjoy for local sports fans and undoubtedly a highlight on our sporting calendar, kicking off with this afternoon's Shute Shield rugby derby between Warringah and Manly at Pittwater Rugby Park. With a crowd of at least 10,000 expected to roll through the gates, it promises to be a fantastic atmosphere. May the best team win.

Tomorrow sees Manly host traditional NRL rivals Parramatta at Lottoland from 4pm – victory for the Sea Eagles will cement their place in the top eight with the semi-finals looming. Good luck fellas.

Have a great weekend.
